Premises fee's - detail

1. Premises Licence and Club Certificate application fees – fees are based on the non domestic rateable value of a property.

If premises are still under construction (and have not been issued with a rateable value) the band C application fee shall be payable. If premises are fully constructed but are still awaiting valuation the band A fee shall be payable. There are exemptions for educational establishments, church halls, village halls, community centres etc where licences only authorise the provision of regulated entertainment (please make contact for further advice).
